

Flat Creek

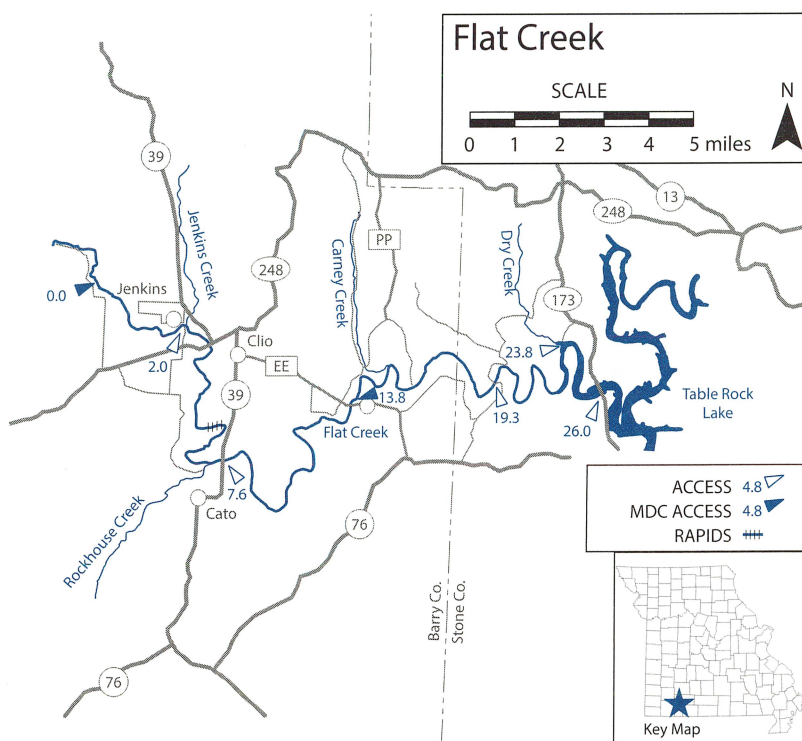

Relatively little of Flat Creek has been destroyed by Table Rock Reservoir. It has been a favorite, even for winter floats, with canoeists.

Difficulty: I and II.

Gradient: almost constant 7 for entire floatable length.

Counties: Barry, Stone.

- 0.0 Stubblefield Access on left, on County Road 1195 off Hwy 248. No ramp. Gravel launch area.
- 2.0 Steel bridge at south edge of village of Jenkins. Access.
- 2.1 Jenkins Creek on left.
- 2.8 Hwy. 248 Bridge. No access.
- 5.5 Old mill-dam site.
- 7.3 Rockhouse Creek on right.
- 7.6 Hwy. 39 Bridge. Access.
- 9.3 Ford. Cato 1 mile west.
- 13.8 Route EE Bridge and Lower Flat Creek Access on right. Gravel bar. No ramp.
- 15.3 Carney Creek on left.
- 19.3 Concrete bridge on County Road 76-100, off Hwy. 76. Access. Table Rock lake fishing regulations apply below this point.
- 23.8 Dry Creek on left, off Hwy. 173. Access.
- 24.4 Table Rock Reservoir may back lake water to this point.
- 26.0 Hwy. 173 Bridge. Access on right.

Flat Creek by David Stonner